AYRSHIRE NEW ZEALAND NATIONAL ON-FARM CHALLENGE 2025/26

Proudly Sponsored by:

INTRODUCTION

Ayrshire NZ is providing an opportunity for Ayrshire breeders to participate in a competition designed to discover and acknowledge the best functional type Ayrshires within NZ. The competition is designed to encourage all breeders to enter cows without the cost of traditional A & P shows and without cattle being fitted.

We know that there are very good cows spread around the country that do not leave the farm to compete at shows and this competition is a great way to promote your herd.

The competition will run nationally and be judged by one judge selected by Ayrshire New Zealand. The highest pointed cow overall in each age group will be announced at the Annual Awards Dinner. The highest overall pointed cow through all age groups will receive the Glengordon Trophy.

For the purposes of the On Farm Challenge only, the Ward boundary between Wards 8 and 9 will be the Waitaki River and Ward 7 will be removed.

RULES

All entrants must be a member of Ayrshire New Zealand.

All cattle entered must be minimum S2A and be registered in the Ayrshire New Zealand Herd Book by 31 October 2025.

1. Cattle must be in milk and have a readable ear tag in her ear, that corresponds with the entry form.
2. Cattle may have their tail and udder clipped, unless entrant has proof that the animal has been to a recent show. Cattle must not be haltered or lead. Cattle may be washed.
3. Cattle are to be judged on a suitable concrete surface.
4. Cattle may be bagged appropriately but no alteration to udders or teats is permitted.
5. No replacements will be allowed on the day of judging. All replacements must be communicated through the Ayrshire New Zealand office.
6. The judge will use the scoring sheet provided by Ayrshire New Zealand.
7. Entries will need to be received by Ayrshire New Zealand by 31 October 2025.
8. Entry is $10 per animal entered. Each breeder may enter a maximum of 12 animals in total and can enter more than one progeny team if they are also entered in the age group classes.
Entry fees will be invoiced to the entrants' Ayrshire New Zealand debtors account, and it is the expectation that entry fees will be paid prior to judging. However, if entry fees remain unpaid at 31 December, the Judging Committee reserves the right to withdraw entries prior to the announcement of the regional results.
